FIGHT IN REPUBLICAN RANKS

Vote-Wets Are Active.

Special to The Washington Herald. Wheeling, W. Va., Aug. 17,-Conditions are arising which will make the fight for the control of the next legislaure the most remarkable in West Virginia. This is aside from any fights which may ensue regarding the Senatorship, and if the plans now being formulated are matured Senator Scott will be overshadowed. The real fight will be between the saloon and anti-saloon elements for the control of the Republican conventions and pri-The Anti-Saloon League will pick out Special to The Washington Herald.

DRUM TO RUN INDEPENDENT. He Will Seek Office of Sheriff Despite Primary Defeat,

Special to The Washington Herald. Cumberland, Md., Aug. 17 .- John F. Drum, thrice defeated for the Republican nomination for sheriff, announced he will run as an independent candidate. Mr. Drum followed Noah Hendley, the successful nominee, by about 200 votes. Two years ago Drum was defeated for the nomination by James Corfield by one vote. Corfield was defeated by William E. Hodel, recently convicted of perjury, and who has since resigned. Mr. Drum received nearly all the votes in the Midland and Rawlings districts Saturday last. Drum has always been a Pearre man, but declares the Lowndes people treated him better than the faction for which he has worked loyally and faithfully for many years.
